Student Council as a Support System during the academic year 2023-2024

The student council constituted in the institution proved to be an indispensable asset throughout the academic year. The unwavering support, coupled with enthusiasm and commitment, of the members significantly contributed to the overall well-being and success of the student body.

The following matters are keenly and judiciously imparted :

- Union Fund Management: Create a structured approach to manage union funds which is maintained in a bank account in the name of the union, including detailed guidelines on how funds can be allocated for various union activities such as student welfare programs, academic events, and administrative expenses. Ensure that fund allocation aligns with the goals and priorities of the student union.
- Regular Financial Reviews: Conduct regular financial reviews and audits of the student union's funds to ensure proper usage and adherence to budgetary constraints. Provide transparency by sharing financial reports with the student body and allowing for feedback and suggestions on fund management practices.
- Encouragement and Coordination for External Events and Competitions: Actively encourage and support student participation in external events and competitions, such as youth festivals and inter-college contests. This includes disseminating information about upcoming events, organizing preparatory sessions, and providing guidance on registration and participation processes. Create a supportive environment where students feel motivated to represent the college and showcase their talents.

- Logistics Coordination: Take responsibility for coordinating all logistical aspects related to external events and competitions. This involves organizing transportation, accommodation (if required), and necessary permissions or approvals. Ensure that students are well-prepared by providing them with the necessary resources, such as materials, equipment, and practice sessions, to enhance their performance and experience during these events.
- Regular Updates: Provide regular updates to the student body about council activities, achievements, and upcoming events through newsletters, bulletins, and social media.
- The council organizes workshops and seminars aimed at developing leadership skills among students. These programs include public speaking, event management, conflict resolution, and team-building exercises.
- Programs to promote the spirit of inclusivity and diversity among students is also conducted.
- The council initiates partnerships with NGOs, and other educational institutions to enhance the scope and quality of student activities and community service programs and facilitate networking opportunities for students through interactions with professionals, alumni, and leaders from various fields.

The alumni community NOSA has proven to be an invaluable asset in enhancing the educational experience of current students. Through their active engagement, they contribute significantly to various aspects of student life, including academic, cultural, and extracurricular activities.

✓ Alumni Support During School Induction:

During the crucial school induction period, alumni play a pivotal role in cognizing the present students. They offer demonstration classes, providing real-world insights and practical knowledge. Additionally, their assistance in developing teaching manuals aids educators in delivering effective instruction methods tailored to the needs of the students.

✓ Organizing Arts, Sports, and Cultural Events:

Alumni involvement extends beyond academics to enriching the cultural and extracurricular landscape of the institution. They spearhead the organization of arts, sports, and cultural events, providing students with platforms to showcase their talents and foster holistic development. These events not only celebrate diversity but also promote teamwork, creativity, and leadership among students.

✓ Engagement of Alumni Educators:

A notable aspect of alumni support is the active participation of former students who have pursued careers in education. These alumni, now teachers and college professors, wholeheartedly engage in discussions, reflections, and scheduling of curricular and co-curricular activities. Drawing from their own experiences as students, they offer valuable insights into effective teaching methodologies and curriculum design.
