- Observance of International Mother Language Day 2024 on 21st February on the theme - “Multilingual education is a pillar of intergenerational learning”. The institution contemplates the fact that today, 250 million children and young people still do not attend school and 763 million adults do not master basic literacy skills. Hence it is crucial to sensitize our students who are prospective educators about the relevance our home languages \Mother tongue holds in defining and supporting learning, literacy and the acquisition of additional languages.

Cultural Events hosted from 2019 to 2024

The cultural events organized by the institution from 2019 to 2024 have not only showcased the rich diversity of cultures but have also highlighted the students' commitment to preserving cultural heritage and their strong organizational skills.

Preserving Cultural Heritage

The students' participation in the cultural events demonstrated their deep appreciation for the cultural roots and the desire to preserve them for future generations. The students actively engaged in traditional performances, showcased local handicrafts, and participated in cultural workshops, demonstrating their understanding and respect for the cultural heritage.

Organizational Skills

The success of the cultural events was largely attributed to the excellent organizational skills of the students involved. They took on various responsibilities, including planning, coordinating, and executing the events. Their ability to manage multiple tasks, meet deadlines, and work effectively as a team was evident in the seamless execution of the cultural programs.

Key Examples

- Cultural Workshops: Students organized workshops on traditional arts, crafts, and dance forms, sharing their knowledge and skills with fellow students and the wider community.
- Cultural Exhibitions: Students curated exhibitions showcasing local artifacts, costumes, and photographs, preserving and promoting the rich cultural heritage of the region.
- Cultural Performances: Students meticulously prepared and performed traditional dances, songs, and plays, ensuring that the cultural heritage was accurately represented and celebrated.

The cultural events organized by the institution have not only provided a platform for students to express their creativity but have also showcased their commitment to preserving cultural heritage and their strong organizational skills. The students' dedication and hard work have ensured that these events have become an integral part of the institution's cultural landscape.

International Mother Language Day, celebrated annually on February 21, can also be judged as a significant occasion that promotes the preservation and promotion of all languages around the world. In a linguistically diverse country like India, this day celebrated every year holds particular importance as it underscores the value of mother tongues and fosters a sense of cultural identity.

Key Themes and Objectives the students imbibed through the conduct of significant days

- Linguistic Diversity: International Mother Language Day highlights the importance of linguistic diversity and encourages respect for all languages.
- Mother Tongue Preservation: The day emphasizes the preservation of mother tongues, which are often marginalized or threatened by globalization and modernization.
- Multilingualism: It promotes multilingualism, recognizing the benefits of learning and using multiple languages.
- Cultural Identity: Mother tongues are closely linked to cultural identity, and the day celebrates the rich cultural heritage associated with each language.

Impact in India

The celebration of International Mother Language Day in India has had a profound impact on fostering a sense of cultural affinity and promoting multilingualism. Here are some key outcomes:

- Increased Awareness: The day has raised awareness about the importance of mother tongues and the challenges they face in the face of globalization.
- Language Revitalization: Efforts to preserve and promote endangered languages have gained momentum, leading to language revitalization initiatives.

National College for Teacher Education

(NAAC Accredited with 'B' Grade)

- Multilingual Education: Schools and educational institutions have become more receptive to the idea of multilingual education, incorporating mother tongues into the curriculum.
- Cultural Pride: The celebration of mother tongues has reinforced cultural pride and a sense of belonging among diverse communities.
- Global Connections: The day has also facilitated global connections through the exchange of languages and cultural experiences.

International Mother Language Day plays a vital role in promoting linguistic diversity, cultural identity, and multilingualism in India. By celebrating the richness of mother tongues and encouraging their preservation, the day contributes to a more inclusive and harmonious society.
