WASTE MANAGEMENT POLICY

National College for Teacher Education is not only a place of academic learning but also a hub for developing environmentally conscious citizens. This policy aims to instill a strong sense of environmental responsibility among future educators while simultaneously creating a sustainable campus.

Policy Title: "Educating for a Greener Tomorrow: A Holistic Waste Management Policy"

Policy Objectives:

- Reduce waste generation in campus.
- Maximize recycling, upcycling and composting efforts.
- Create a learning environment that promotes environmental education.
- Involve the entire community in waste management initiatives.

Key Policy Components:

Curriculum Integration:

- Mandatory inclusion of environmental education and waste management topics in teacher education programs.
- Development of curriculum modules focused on waste reduction, recycling, composting, and environmental awareness.
- Practical training on waste management through community projects and internships.

Waste Reduction and Reuse:

- Implementation of No Single-Use Plastic policy on campus.
- Encouragement of refillable water bottles and reusable containers.
- Establishment of a campus repair and reuse centre for electronic and other items.
- Digitalization of administrative processes to reduce paper consumption.
- Develop guidelines for organizing sustainable events on campus, ensuring minimal waste generation and proper waste management.
- Observe every Wednesday as zero waste day. The fine charged for wasted food is used for charity.

GREEN POLICY- Eco-Campus, Eco-Citizen

The Green Policy of National College for Teacher Education is to promote environmental sustainability, reduce the ecological footprint of the college, and foster a culture of environmental responsibility among students, faculty, and staff. The pressing global challenges of climate change and resource depletion necessitate a comprehensive approach to sustainability. NCFTE recognizes the critical role it plays in fostering environmental stewardship and preparing students to be responsible global citizens. This Green Policy outlines our commitment to creating an eco-campus that serves as a living laboratory for sustainable practices.

Policy Statement

The institution is committed to fostering a sustainable campus environment that nurtures environmentally conscious individuals. This policy outlines a comprehensive approach to integrating sustainability into campus operations, curriculum, and community engagement.

Objective of the Policy

To create a sustainable and environmentally responsible campus community that fosters a culture of environmental stewardship and positively impact the surrounding environment.

This objective encompasses the core principles of the policy,

- Integrate sustainability into the campus culture and curriculum.
- To minimize waste generation and promote recycling and responsible disposal of materials.
- To conserve energy and water resources through efficient practices.
- To enhance green spaces and biodiversity on campus.
- To integrate sustainability into the academic curriculum and campus operations.
- Develop students into environmentally conscious and responsible citizens.

Core Components

Eco-Literacy Curriculum:

- Environmental education courses for all students, incorporating practical skills and knowledge.
- Integration of sustainability concepts across disciplines, from Science to Humanities.

- Development of interdisciplinary projects and research focused on environmental challenges.

Campus as a Living Laboratory:

- Transform the campus into a living laboratory for sustainable practices, including rainwater harvesting, solar energy, organic gardening, and waste management.
- Establish a biodiversity conservation area to protect local flora and fauna.
- Utilize campus facilities for community outreach and environmental education programs.

Sustainable Food Systems:

- Promote locally sourced, organic, and plant-based food options in campus dining facilities.
- Reduce food waste through composting and educational campaigns.
- Establish a campus garden to cultivate fresh produce and promote healthy eating habits.

Green Transportation:

- Incentivize the use of public transportation, cycling, and walking through infrastructure improvements and rewards.
- Reduce reliance on single-use vehicles through car-sharing programs.

Community Engagement:

- Partner with local organizations on environmental initiatives, such as tree planting, cleaning drives, and waste management programs.
- Encourage student volunteerism in environmental causes.
- Establish a Sustainability Committee to involve community members in decision-making.

Green Procurement and Waste Management:

- Prioritize purchasing eco-friendly products and services.
- Implement comprehensive waste management programs, including recycling, composting, and hazardous waste disposal.
- Reduce single-use plastics and promote reusable alternatives.

The responsibility for implementing this Green Policy lies with all members of the college community. The Sustainability Committee, consisting of faculty, staff, and student representatives, will oversee the implementation and monitoring of this policy, providing guidance and support as needed.

NURTURING A SUSTAINABLE CAMPUS

Recognizing the pressing environmental challenges and issues of our planet, National College for Teacher Education is committed to operating in an environmentally responsible manner. This Green Procurement Policy outlines the institution's commitment to sustainability by integrating environmental considerations into all purchasing decisions. By prioritizing products and services that minimize environmental impact, promote social responsibility, and support local economies, we aim to contribute to a healthier planet and foster a culture of sustainability within our institution. This policy serves as a framework for selecting and procuring goods and services that align with our environmental and social values.

The institution is committed to minimizing its environmental impact and fostering a culture of sustainability through responsible purchasing practices. This policy outlines guidelines for selecting and procuring goods and services that prioritize environmental sustainability, social responsibility, and economic viability.

Objectives:

- Prioritize products and services with minimal environmental impact throughout their lifecycle, from extraction to disposal.
- Support suppliers that adhere to fair labour practices, human rights, and ethical business conduct.
- Consider the long-term cost-effectiveness of products and services, including factors such as energy efficiency and durability.
- Prefer locally sourced products to reduce transportation emissions and support the local economy.
- Minimize packaging and waste generation by selecting products with recyclable or reusable components.
- Encourage the exploration of new and innovative sustainable products and services.

Procurement Process

- Implement a rigorous supplier evaluation process that assesses environmental and social performance.
- Consider the entire lifecycle of products and services when making purchasing decisions.
- Develop clear guidelines for identifying and selecting environmentally preferable products.
- Provide guidelines to procurement staff and end-users on sustainable purchasing practices.

Specific Considerations

- Food and Beverage: Prioritize locally sourced, organic, and fair-trade products. Reduce food waste through careful purchasing and portion control.
- Cleaning Supplies: Opt for environmentally friendly cleaning products with minimal harmful chemicals.
- Paper Products: Maximize the use of recycled paper and promote electronic document management.
- Energy and Water Efficiency: Purchase energy-efficient equipment and appliances.

By implementing this Green Procurement Policy, NCFTE demonstrates its commitment to environmental sustainability and social responsibility. Through careful selection of products and services, we aim to reduce our ecological footprint, support ethical suppliers, and contribute to a healthier planet. We recognize that sustainable procurement is an ongoing process, and we are committed to continuous improvement and adaptation to emerging best practices. By working collaboratively with suppliers, staff, and the broader community, we can collectively create a more sustainable future.

Anti-Narcotic Policy

The use of narcotics poses a significant threat to the health, safety, and academic performance of students and staff. This policy outlines the institution's commitment to creating a drug-free environment and provides guidelines for prevention, detection, and response to narcotic-related issues. The use, possession, distribution, or manufacturing of narcotics on campus or at institution-sponsored events is strictly prohibited.

Policy Title: Zero Tolerance to Narcotics

Objective

To create a drug-free campus environment by preventing the use, possession, distribution, or manufacturing of narcotics and providing support and resources for those affected by substance abuse.

Core Principles

Health and Safety: Prioritize the health and safety of all members of the institution.

Academic Integrity: Maintain a focus on academic achievement and success.

Respect: Foster a culture of respect for self, others, and the institution.

Prevention: Implement comprehensive prevention programs to educate and empower the community.

Support: Provide support and resources for those seeking help with substance abuse.

Compliance: Adhere to all applicable laws and regulations regarding narcotics.

Implementation and Evolution

Education and Awareness: Conduct regular educational programs and campaigns to raise awareness about the dangers of narcotics.

Detection and Reporting: Establish clear procedures for reporting suspected narcotic-related activities.

Counselling and Support: Provide access to counselling and support services for individuals struggling with substance abuse.

Disciplinary Action: Implement appropriate disciplinary actions for violations of this policy.

Collaboration: Partner with local law enforcement and community organizations to address the issue of narcotics.

NCFTE is committed to creating a drug-free campus environment. By adhering to this policy, we can protect the health and well-being of our community and maintain a focus on academic excellence.

Class on Menstrual Hygiene

A menstrual hygiene awareness class was conducted on 16-01-2024 at 2 PM in Seminar Hall in association with Guidance and Counselling Cell with the aim of addressing Menstrual Hygiene Management (MHM) related issues and promoting overall menstrual health. The class targeted girl students in the college hostel.

Objectives

The primary objectives of the class were to:

- Increase awareness about menstrual hygiene and its importance.
- Address misconceptions and stigma surrounding menstruation.
- Provide information on menstrual hygiene management practices.
- Promote access to menstrual hygiene products and facilities.
- Empower participants to advocate for menstrual health and hygiene.

Key Topics Covered

The class covered the following essential aspects of menstrual hygiene:

Physiology of Menstruation: A basic understanding of the menstrual cycle and bodily changes.

Menstrual Hygiene Management: Proper hygiene practices during menstruation, including personal hygiene and care of menstrual products.

Myth-Busting: Addressing common misconceptions and taboos related to menstruation.

Menstrual Health Issues: Information about menstrual disorders and when to seek medical attention.
